

Colgate University, Hamilton, NY

The department of economics is seeking applications for a one-year visiting assistant professor/instructor beginning August 2009. Responsibilities include teaching an introductory course in environmental economics, a seminar in environmental and resource economics, and econometrics labs. Teaching load is 5 courses per year. Minimum qualifications include: ABD in economics, prior college/university teaching experience, and a demonstrated potential for high quality teaching. Colgate University is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer. Developing and sustaining a diverse faculty, student body, and staff further the University's educational mission. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please send or email a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, 3 letters of recommendation, and evidence of teaching experience and effectiveness to: Professor Robert Turner (rturner@mail.colgate.edu), Search Committee Chair, Department of Economics, Colgate University; 13 Oak Drive, Hamilton, NY 13346. Email applications are encouraged.